If you always pay at least the minimum payment shown on your statement on or before the payment due date, the relevant Interest Rate for your approved Card will apply to your account Balance (excluding Cash Advances, Balance Transfers and Convenience Cheques) and the relevant Cash Interest Rate for your approved Card will apply to all Cash Advances, Balance Transfers and Convenience Cheques. If you then pay the minimum payment on time for 12 consecutive billing periods, the Interest Rate and Cash Interest Rate will revert back to the original Interest Rate and Cash Interest Rate relevant for your approved Card, beginning on the first day of the following billing period. In addition to the above scenario, we may with prior notice, increase or decrease at our sole discretion the Interest Rate and/or Cash Interest Rate applicable to your account following a review of any combination of, but not limited to: • Your account behavior (including missed or late payment(s), credit limit and cash advance utilization); and • Your credit bureau reports and credit history (including changes in your credit, delinquencies, civil judgements, collections or foreclosure)
Interest-free Grace Period	The payment due date shown on your monthly statement will be at least 21 days after the last day of the statement period shown on your monthly statement. This period of time is referred to as an interest-free grace period if you pay your new Balance in full. There is no interest-free grace period for Cash Advances, Cash-Like Transactions, Balance Transfers, and Transactions using Convenience Cheques or any fees associated with such transactions. If you do not pay your total new Balance in full by the payment due date on your current statement, your grace period will increase to at least 25 days on your next monthly statement. Your grace period will return to at least 21 days if you pay your Balance due in full by the next payment due date.

Terms and Conditions

In these terms and conditions, “we”, “our” and “us” mean Fairstone Bank of Canada. “You” and “your” means each applicant and each cardholder, if your application is approved. “Walmart Rewards Mastercard” means a Mastercard credit card issued by us. If your application is approved, you agree to be bound by the Walmart Rewards Mastercard Cardholder Agreement (“Cardholder Agreement”) that applies to your account. Your Cardholder Agreement can be accessed at walmartrewards.ca, a copy will also be sent to you with your Walmart Rewards Mastercard. By activating or otherwise using your Walmart Rewards Mastercard or accessing your account at any time, you agree to be bound by the Cardholder Agreement.

By applying for a Walmart Rewards Mastercard, you request that either a standard Walmart Rewards Mastercard or a premium Walmart Rewards Mastercard be issued to you. You understand that premium cards can impose higher card acceptance costs on merchants. You agree that the issuance of any credit card is subject to the terms and conditions provided with this application and the Cardholder Agreement, as may be amended from time to time.

Eligibility for a premium card may be based on such factors as your personal and/or household income in combination with your credit history and other financial information, and is subject to change from time to time.

Balance Alerts

Federal legislation requires that we send the primary cardholder an alert (the “Balance Alert”) by electronic means (including email, text, or other electronic means that we may make available from time to time) when the available credit on your account falls below a specified amount of your credit limit (the “Threshold Amount”). For example, if your credit limit is $1,000 and your Threshold Amount is $100, then the primary cardholder will receive a Balance Alert when your outstanding balance is at $900 or more.

The primary cardholder can set the Threshold Amount, or if none is set we will apply the Threshold Amount required by law. You can opt out of Balance Alerts at any time.

Each Balance Alert that you receive will include actions you can take to help you avoid any charges or penalties that may be imposed by us on your account (as set out in this Disclosure Statement and as further described in your Cardholder Agreement) for your most recent transaction(s) or subsequent transaction(s) made on your account, and the time within which such actions should be taken.
